Local Presence... Global Reach

World Trade Center Anchorage is a private non-profit membership organization providing international trade and business services to members and community partners across the state. We are affiliated with 320 World Trade Center locations in over 90 countries. WTCAN is also partnered with the U.S. Commercial Service of the U.S. Department of Commerce, which maintains a network of 1,400 trade professionals in more than 75 countries to assist American businesses abroad.

Through World Trade Center's global network and our unique partnership with the U.S. Commercial Service, we provide unparalleled export assistance services to Alaskan businesses.

At one of our Board Meetings, we invite a representative from your company to meet our Board of Directors. Our board consists of members with a broad background of international business experience.

Complementary Tickets

Receive complimentary tickets to WTC's annual, Statewide Economic Forecast Luncheon in Anchorage. This "must attend event" provides attendees with information and analysis on Alaska's economic picture and an update on the state's international trade. Chairman's Club Members: 4 tickets, CEO Club Members: 2 tickets.

Trade Mission Invitations

Invitations to join WTC staff and guests on our international trade missions.

Member Spotlight

When you join at this level and each year when you renew your membership, we will communicate the latest developments of your company with a specialized email announcement to the members and friends of the Center. This broadcast will be sent to over 1,000 active email addresses.

Member Perks

Discounts and special offers from fellow member companies and friends of WTC Anchorage.

Website Recognition

Be seen as a Major Corporate Sponsor on our webpage and in our regular email newsletters. Your logo will appear prominently and will link to your company webpage.

Trade & Market Research

Take advantage of WTC's 28 years of international business experience. Our staff will conduct customized research to enable you to achieve your goals.

Business Networking

Membership in WTC Anchorage places you within our community of active Alaskan business. Our professional membership ranges from small businesses to global corporations. We have approximately eight business conferences at premier locations each year as well as informal evening receptions at our office offering you ample opportunities to network with our members and guests.

Your Office Away From Home

Your membership card grants reciprocal privileges with many World Trade Centers around the world. We can arrange private meeting rooms, internet access, video conferences, and trade assistance with other Trade Centers. Use these facilities to meet with your business partners in key locations here in the U.S. and abroad.

Your Extended Staff

The Trade Center staff has direct experience doing business in Alaska's major international markets. They can extend your capabilities before and during your business travel abroad. Let us assist you with trade research and introductions to business leaders and government officials in foreign markets.

Special Session Invitations

From time to time, WTC will receive special guests such as visiting foreign ambassadors, consuls, and international business leaders. Members who share common interests with our special guests are invited to informal discussions on potential business opportunities.
